

Sustainable Summer Offers!

Valid until 29th August 2025

To help your lab operate as sustainable and cost effectively as possible we have put together our Sustainable Summer Selection at low prices and low carbon!

Reduce your carbon footprint and improve your results with highQu, LSG and Hygieia-San

Eco-Friendly Molecular Biology

Lampadina Scientific Ltd have partnered with highQu to offer UK scientists their complete range of cost effective molecular biology reagents

Key Benefits

- Have just one supplier for all the molecular biology reagents - fewer deliveries, reduced packaging, bulk order cost savings - less hassle!
- Ambient temperature shipping and storage available on a selection of the product range, reducing dry ice use, saving energy and cost
- Direct PCR kits remove the need for separate DNA extraction & PCR mastermix products - drastically reducing packaging, cost and transport emissions.
- Many products include molecular grade water, reducing contamination risks and need to repeat PCR failures
- highQu packaging is reusable and makes for useful racking in the lab
- Samples are available on request but delivery charges may apply
